23. Caricature Human: Single full human figure, any finish. Carvings must be in the round, and must exaggerate or distort physical features for a humorous effect.
24. Caricature Single Human in a Scene: Any finish. To qualify as a scene, a portion of the scene, not including the base, must be detached from the full human figure. For example: a cowboy holding a bottle in his hand is considered a single figure. If the bottle is lying on the base, separate from the figure, the carving will be classified as a scene. Carvings with more than one living creature, excluding plants, must be entered in category 24.

25. Caricature Single Animal, Bird or Fish: Any finish, full figure. Carvings must be in the round and must exaggerate or distort a distinctive feature to produce a humorous effect.
26. Caricature Group: Any subject, any finish. A group consisting of at least two, full-figured living creatures and must be permanently affixed to a common base. (Dead humans or animals will count as living creatures).
27. Caricature Bust: Single figure caricature bust that depicts a head, shoulders, and upper chest. Carvings must be in the round, and must exaggerate or distort physical features for a humorous effect. Any finish.
28. Bottlestopper: Any bust or figure designed specifically to be used as a bottle stopper. Must be affixed to a cork, capable of being displayed on a bottle. Any finish.
29. Christmas Item: Any Christmas subject, any finish, in the round or relief. May include single figures or groups. Includes Santa, ornaments, bells, wreaths, etc.
30. Spindle Turning: Spindle turning, or turning between centers. Wood turned on its center axis. Grain of the wood parallel to the ways of the lathe. Any subject, any finish.
31. Bowl or open vessel: Wood turned and orientated at right angles to the axis of the lathe. Opened, hollowed vessel (not closed).
32. Miscellaneous woodturning: Any other turned item. Examples include hollow form closed vessel or segmented turning. Any subject, any finish
33. Whittled Novelties, Boots, Shoes and Toys: Carved or whittled piece. Carved with hand tools, no sanding.
34. Miniature: Any subject, any finish. Must fit completely within a 2" x 2" x 2" box.
35. Miscellaneous: Includes any carving that does not fit in the above categories. (Natural, stained, or burned wildfowl, bird busts). Also includes any of the above categories not judged due to lack of entries. Carvings with their own category cannot be entered in Miscellaneous.
36. Novice: Any subject, any finish. Open to any NOVICE carver who has never won a 1st or 2nd place ribbon in any woodcarving show. No instructor assisted pieces.
37. Rough-out: Any subject, single or group, carved from a commercial rough-out which is not the original design of the carver. Must be completely carved by the submitting carver. Any finish. No instructor assisted pieces.

- Categories with 3 or less entries may not be judged. If a category is not judged due to lack of entries, those pieces may be entered in the (Miscellaneous) category.
- Carvings fitting a specific category must be entered into that category. The Judging Committee reserves the right to move any entry to the most appropriate category.
- All entries must be at the check-in table 15 minutes prior to judging time.
- Merit Awards will be awarded, at the discretion of the Show Judge, in each of six (6) category groups. Details will be provided in your show packets.
- Best-of-Show (woodcarving) will be selected from the Merit Award winners.
- Detailed information, definitions, and explanations will be provided in your show packet at check in.

The decisions of the judge are final.
